The club maintains a membership list of all present members and those who have not renewed up to 12 months after renewal is due. The list comprises of titles, forenames, surnames, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses and affix. The list is stored as a database and is securely held in an encrypted online cloud and a password protected computer. The list is only used for club purposes to maintain a register of members and produce mailing labels for club use only. The list is only accessed by the secretary and treasurer of the Midland Bedlington Terrier Club and may be made available to the Kennel Club if required. The list is created from membership forms received from members, these forms are securely stored for up to 2 years, then they are shredded or incinerated.

Members have the right to request their personal information stored by the club and/or to have information erased. Requests must be made in writing to the secretary.
